Subpage 2	HEADLINE: How To Budget For A Festival Subhead: Plan Ahead Text Chunk 1: Most festivals sell tickets for the next year shortly after that year's event, and many have early bird prices that can almost cut your bill in half. With purchasing			https://sanaakosirickylee.wordpress.com/2012/03/17/myth-buster-8-a-piggy-coin-

	your ticket in advance, you'll have time book an airline for cheap to that city, plan transportation, and even rent a house near the venue for cheap. The more time you have, the more money you'll be able to save. Subhead: Volunteer Text Chunk 2: So many festivals offer volunteer options, and if that festival offers walk-in camping as well, then volunteering equals a free ticket and a free place to stay while you're there. How great is that?! If you want to volunteer at big-hitting festivals, apply at OxFam.	https://www.airbnb.com https://www.oxfamamerica.org/take-action/volunteer/		https://www.hotboxevents.com/media/2389/hotbox-events-festival-volunteering_homepage-hero-header_2016002_1440x780px72dpi.jpg

	Subhead: Shop Smart Text Chunk 3: It is easy to get overwhelmed with all the things you think you need for a festival and how much it's going to cost, but in reality, you don't need much and there are places to purchase items for cheap. Take for instance, Amazon. You can purchase a tent for $40 and a sleeping bag that's between 20-40 dollars. It all depends on where you look and where you can get the best deals. Subhead: Food	https://www.amazon.com http://backwoodsmusicfestival.com/top-10-foods-to-pack-when-traveling-to-a-music-festival/		http://images.medicaldaily.com/sites/medicaldaily.com/files/2015/05/24/grocery-store-snacks.jpg

	Text Chunk 4: Buying food for a weekend can be daunting, especially when you are so limited with cooking provisions. If you or your friends have a portable cooking stove, bring it. This will allow you to whip up something quick and easy such as mac n' cheese or hot dogs. Let's face it, you don't want to be snacking on chips and PB&Js for three days. Eating something substantial will help when you are walking miles to and from the festival and when you've been dancing all day and night.

Subpage 3	HEADLINE: Living Accommodations Subhead: Camping Text Chunk 1: Going to a festival with a group of 4 or 5 people is ideal. The cost of buying things are cheaper because it is split among more people. Camping or renting a hotel, if there are more people to split the costs, the more money you will save and also have to spend at the actual festival. Here are some more tips for first time festival campers. Subhead: Arrive Early	http://www.mountainwarehouse.com/expert-advice/how-to-survive-festival-camping		https://static1.squarespace.com/static/534eeaf9e4b066e96f6d742d/t/537d334fe4b0682a2ca3b603/1400714070225/

	Text Chunk 2: The earlier you get to a music festival, the better chances you have of securing a good spot closest to the entrance of the festival and to the water stations. If you arrive late, you will be scrambling to fit yourself into the massive sea of tents and most likely end up on the outskirts of the camp grounds. Subhead: Safety Text Chunk 3: It is easy to get caught up in all the fun music and people around you and not realize that your belongings are at stake of being snatched from you in the blink of an eye. Keeping your belongings safe and hiding items safely in your tent is key in not			https://static1.squarespace.com/static/534eeaf9e4b066e96f6d742d/t/537d334fe4b0682a2ca3b603/1400714070225/
